

NON-PROFIT PARTNERS OF THE STEINBRUCK CENTER

Bread for the City

www.breadforthecity.org

The mission of Bread for the City is to provide vulnerable residents of Washington, DC, with comprehensive services, including food, clothing, medical care, and legal and social services, in an atmosphere of dignity and respect. We recognize that all people share a common humanity, and that all are responsible to themselves and to society as a whole.

Capital Area Food Bank

www.capitalareafoodbank.org

The Capital Area Food Bank is the largest, public nonprofit hunger and nutrition education resource in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area. Each year the CAFB distributes 20 million pounds of food, including 6 million pounds of fresh produce, to over 700 partner agencies. The Capital Area Food Bank was founded on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, January 15, 1980.

Community for Creative Non-Violence

www.erols.com/ccnv

CCNV's Mission is to ensure that the rights of the homeless and poor are not infringed upon and that every person has access to life's basic essentials -- food, shelter, clothing and medical care. CCNV is also committed to protecting the rights of the homeless, advocating on behalf of the underserved, and preparing homeless men and woman to re-enter into mainstream society as skilled and productive citizens.

Christian Communities Group Homes

www.esm.org/ccgh/

Christian Communities Group Homes, Inc. (CCGH) has been providing housing and care for low-income seniors since 1981 and became a subsidiary of Episcopal Senior Ministries in 2000. CCGH today operates three recently-renovated, small homes for low-income elderly in NE Washington, DC and a volunteer-based housing services program, Age-in-Place, that helps seniors maintain the integrity and safety of their homes.

Common Good City Farm

the7thstreetgarden.squarespace.com/

CGCF is an urban food garden that directly promotes food security, human and environmental health, and strong communities. In addition to gardening, CGCF educates others about urban sustainability while addressing DC's hunger needs.

Community Family Life Services

www.cflsdc.org/home.cfm

At Community Family Life Services, our mission is to give people living in poverty and homelessness the tools they need to move towards permanent economic and social self-sufficiency. Not only do we offer short-term crisis assistance, but we also empower families and individuals to change their lives for the better. Our dedicated staff and volunteers provide a variety of services in the following areas: Housing Services; Supportive Services & Community Outreach; and Youth Development & Advocacy.

THE STEINBRUCK CENTER FOR URBAN STUDIES

an interfaith ministry of justice, hospitality and learning

Community of Hope

www.communityofhopedc.org

The mission of Community of Hope is to improve health and quality of life for low-income, homeless, and underserved families and individuals in the District of Columbia by providing health care, housing with supportive services, educational opportunities, and spiritual support.

DC Central Kitchen

www.dccentralkitchen.org

DC Central Kitchen, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) corporation that was incorporated on July 27, 1988 and began its first phase of operations on January 20, 1989, redistributing the excess food from the Presidential inauguration. The Kitchen is founded on the premise that when fighting poverty, one must fight to win by using every resource available. Be it food, money, or people, we at the Kitchen hate to see wasted potential. Since its inception, DC Central Kitchen has used the kitchen as a central location to recover unused food, prepare and deliver meals to partner social service agencies, train and employ homeless men and women for the food service industry, and intellectually engage volunteers.

Food and Friends

www.foodandfriends.org

The mission of Food & Friends is to foster a community caring for men, women, and children living with HIV/AIDS, cancer, and other life-challenging illnesses by preparing and delivering specialized meals and groceries in conjunction with nutrition counseling.

Martha's Table

www.marthastable.org

Martha's Table's mission is to help at-risk children, youth, families and individuals in our community improve their lives by providing educational programs, food, clothing, and enrichment opportunities.

Miriam's Kitchen

www.miriamskitchen.org

Miriam's Kitchen offers a hot, nutritious breakfast every weekday morning to individuals who are homeless in Washington, DC. In addition to breakfast, guests are invited to receive a wide range of social services, including mental health, medical, and substance abuse services, assistance finding adequate shelter and permanent housing, connection to employment, and help meeting other immediate needs such as clothing, toiletries, transportation, and haircuts. Miriam's Kitchen also seeks to build a sustaining community for our guests that draws on their creative gifts, through daily groups of art and creative writing.

New Horizons

www.childrensnational.org

New Horizons is a program of the Children's National Medical Center that provides bedside instructional activities in visual arts, literature, music, dance, movement, puppetry, and story telling.

THE STEINBRUCK CENTER FOR URBAN STUDIES

an interfaith ministry of justice, hospitality and learning

So Others Might Eat

www.some.org

SOME exists to help the poor and homeless of our nation's capital. We meet the immediate daily needs of the people we serve with food, clothing, and health care. We help break the cycle of homelessness by offering services, such as affordable housing, job training, addiction treatment, and counseling, to the poor, the elderly and individuals with mental illness.

Thrive DC

www.thrivedc.org

Thrive DC is an independent, 501 (c) 3 nonprofit organization serving the District of Columbia. Since 1979, Thrive DC has continually served hot, nutritious, appetizing meals to the homeless and poor of downtown DC.

Washington Parks and People

www.washingtonparks.net

Washington Parks & People began 19 years ago with Meridian Hill/Malcolm X Park receiving the National Park Service's highest organizational award for leading the transformation of the single most violent park in the capital region into one of its safest. We now help revitalize once forgotten parks and communities throughout the inner capital region by working with a wide variety of people, agencies, and organizations.