

IMMEDIATE OPENING: Arts Director, ArtSmart Summer Camp

Join our team for a summer filled with fun, excitement and arts! ArtSmart Summer Camp is a community-run, arts-based summer program run by Luther Place Memorial Church for 40 young people in the Logan Circle neighborhood of Washington, DC. Art Smart is a full-day arts camp that runs Monday, July 8 through Friday, August 2. Each week explores a different theme. Campers will experience music, drama, art and games related to the weekly theme, as well as spending afternoons engaging in physical activity and going on fun weekly field trips!

Overview:

The Arts director will guide the planning, operations and execution of arts activities for a 4-week summer camp for K-6th grade students. Paid position with a $2000 stipend.

Responsibilities: Pre-Camp

- Create, organize and plan the art curriculum for Kindergarten through 6th graders for four weeks of ArtSmart camp.
- Work with the Camp Manager to organize and inventory old art supplies before ordering new supplies.
- Work with the Camp Manager to order art materials, donation supplies from the congregation and any other supplies needed.
- Orient and prepare classroom leaders to execute the curriculum plan.

Camp Season

- On-site for ArtSmart Camp, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 8am to 4pm to coach and support teachers and aides.
- Help in design of hanging the art work in the Sanctuary
- Attend Camp pre-meetings and the morning church celebration/Soul Fiesta Block Party on August 4, 10:30 am to 3:00 pm.
- Other duties as assigned.

Please submit a letter of interest and resume to Deacon Kati Miller-Holland: DeaconKati@gmail.com. Applications will be open until position is filled.